

Enabling Partnership to Flourish during Challenging Times: 9 September 2021

We are delighted to inform you that registration for the next RAISE Special Interest Group for Partnership is now open!

This free event will be hosted online by the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE) on Thursday 9 September 2021 between 1:30 – 4:30pm (GMT).

The theme will be: Enabling Partnership to Flourish during Challenging Times

The keynote will be delivered by: Professor Colin Bryson

Over 25 presenters will be joining us from institutions across the world.

Information about the keynote speaker and all presentations can be found on the Running Order (subject to change).

You can register for this free event online at: raisepartnershipsig2021.eventbrite.co.uk. Registration will close on Wednesday 8 September 2021.

The event will explore the benefits, challenges and limitations of digital, hybrid and in-person approaches to partnership during the pandemic and beyond. Presenters will be speaking to the following questions:

- How have you been practicing partnership values over the 2020-21 academic year?
- What was enabled or enhanced by the move online?
- What has been missing from digital forms of partnership during lockdown?
- How are you planning to practice partnership in 2021-22 and beyond? In-person, digital or hybrid?
- What will motivate students to engage in these forms of partnership in 2021-22 and beyond?

If you have any questions, please email Lydia Halls (l.halls@lse.ac.uk). We look forward to hopefully seeing you at the event in September!